Masjid Fresno's General Rules for the Month of Ramadan

1. Iqamah for Isha prayer will be at 10:00 pm throughout the whole month of Ramadan, followed by Taraweeh prayer.
2. There will be Iftar (breaking the Fast) every day during the month of Ramadan. Please do not bring any juice or soda; ONLY WATER. Iftar will be in the parking lot outside the Masjid. Sisters will be eating in the Masjid's parking lot and Brothers will be eating at the side of the Masjid along Shaw Avenue and in the new parking lot.
3. No food or drink will be allowed in any place inside the Masjid, except WATER ONLY.
4. No kids are allowed in the Masjid without their parents' attendance. The Masjid is not liable for any kids inside or outside the Masjid.
5. You need to keep your children beside you until the conclusion of Tarweeh prayer.
6. No one is allowed to sit on the stairs during the Isha and the Taraweeh prayers.
7. Babysitting is available in the Masjid according to the following rules:
  - A. Three-year to six-year old children will be the responsibility of the babysitters in the babysitting room. As soon as you arrive at the Masjid, you need to sign your kids in the babysitting room and sign them out after the Taraweeh prayer ends or whenever you want to leave.
  - B. Under three-year old children will be the responsibility of their mothers in the babysitting room or wherever it is designated for them.
  - C. Children seven-year old and up will have to pray next to their parents; boys next to their fathers and girls next to their mothers.
  - D. Sisters who are excused from the prayers should be in the babysitting room.
  - E. Please follow the directions of the babysitters and cooperate with them and cooperate with the Masjid's staff.
8. The overflow from the brothers and the sisters will have a place for the prayer upstairs in the main hall of the Masjid.
9. We need to keep the Masjid and its bathrooms neat and clean; picking up the trash and keeping the Masjid clean is greatly rewarded by Allah and is really appreciated.
10. Please do not disturb the people during the Salah with loud voice or movements.
11. Lines should be straightened by keeping the heels next to the heels and shoulders next to the shoulders.
12. If you are using a chair to sit on during the Salah, the back legs of the chair should be exactly on the line you are praying in. Do not put it behind the line so as not to disturb those praying behind you.
13. No one is allowed to use the elevator except those who are in real need of using it. Kids are absolutely prohibited from using it or playing with it.
14. Try your best to finish the Tarweeh prayer with the Imam to get the reward of praying the entire night.
15. Please turn off your electronic devices (cell phone, tablets, etc.) upon entering the Masjid and do not play with them in between the Rak'ahs.
16. Please follow the directions of the security in the parking lot and anywhere else and do not violate the parking rules. Additional parking is available at the church, just two blocks away from the Masjid.
17. Please place your shoes on the shoe rack.
18. Teenagers should pray next to their parents and they should not gather in front of the Masjid or in the bathrooms area.

Please cooperate with the Masjid's administration and follow these rules. Masjid Fresno administration wishes you a Happy Ramadan and May Allah accept from all of us. Aameen!
